The Law of the Game governing the sport of Sepaktakraw had been constantly revised to ensure that the rules and regulations therein are kept up-to-date.

A review team comprising some representatives from the various Sepaktakraw Federations have reviewed the existing Law of the Game with the view to fine-tuning the rules and regulations so that any ambiguity is removed.

In its deliberation, the team had taken great care to ensure that the spirit and intended meaning of the rules and regulations are not altered.

It is my hope that everyone concerned with the sport of Sepaktakraw will familiarise themselves with the amended version of the Law of the Game so that we will be able to maintain consistency in its application, no matter where the sport is played.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the following members of the review team for their contribution in the review of the Law of the Game.

4.4 The covering of the Sepaktakraw ball can also be made of synthetic rubber or soft durable material to soften the impact of the ball on the player’s body. The type of material and method used in making the ball shall be approved by ISTAF before it can be used in any competition.

4.5 All international and regional competitions sanctioned by ISTAF, including but not limited to, the Olympic Games, World Games, Commonwealth Games, Asian Games, and SEA Games, shall be played with ISTAF-approved Sepaktakraw balls.

5 THE PLAYERS

5.1 A match is played by two groups, referred to as a “Regu” or “Regus”, each consisting of three players.

5.2 One of the three players shall be positioned at the back and is called a “Tekong” (The Server).
5.3 The other two players shall be in front, one on the left and the other on the right. The player on the left is called a “Left Inside” and the player on the right is called a “Right Inside”. Both are referred to as “Inside” players.

5.4 Team Event

5.4.1 Each team, referred to as “Team” shall comprise three Regus, and shall consist of a minimum of nine players and a maximum of twelve players.

5.4.2 Each player shall be registered in order to participate in any competition.

5.4.3 A maximum of three players shall be registered as part of the team’s “reserve pool”. Players in the reserve pool may be fielded only as substitutes.

5.4.4 Each player shall be permitted to play for only one Regu in any Team Match.

5.4.5 Prior to the start of a game, each team must have a minimum of nine registered players present on the playing court.

5.4.6 Any team with less than nine players shall not be permitted to play the game and shall be disqualified.

5.5 Regu Event

5.5.1 Each Regu shall consist of a minimum of three players and a maximum of five players (1 Regu of 3 players plus 2 reserves) all of whom must be registered.

5.5.2 Prior to the start of the game, each Regu must have at least three players present on the playing court.

5.5.3 Any Regu with less than three players shall not be permitted to play the game and shall be disqualified.

6 PLAYER’S ATTIRE

6.1 All apparels used by players shall be in accordance with the Law of the Game. Any equipment that is designed to increase or reduce the speed of the ball, increase a player’s height or movement or in any other way give an unfair advantage or endangers himself or other players shall not be permitted.
6.2 The opposing teams shall wear jerseys of a different colour.

6.3 A team shall have a minimum of two sets of jerseys of different colour. If both teams are wearing the same colour jerseys, then the home team shall change. When the match is played in a neutral venue, the team listed first on the match program shall make the change.

6.4 A player’s attire consists of a jersey, shorts, socks and sport shoes with rubber soles without heels. The entire apparel of a player is regarded as part of his body. All jerseys shall be properly tucked in prior to the start of every set. During play, the players are allowed to have their jersey tucked out for unrestricted movement.

6.5 All jersey shall be numbered on both the front and back. A player shall be assigned only one number from 1 to 36 throughout a tournament.

6.6 The numbers shall not be less than 19 cm (centimetres) in height on the back, and not less than 10 cm in height on the front within the chest area.

6.7 The name of the player or the country he represents shall be printed on the back of the jersey above the number and must be clearly visible.

6.8 Jerseys may carry a sponsor’s logo subject to tournament regulations.

6.9 The jersey manufacturer logo may appear on any player apparel at approved size.

6.10 The Captain of each Regu shall wear an armband on the left upper arm. Its color must be a different color from the jersey.

6.11 Any other apparel not specifically mentioned in these Law of the Game shall have to be approved by ISTAF.

7 SUBSTITUTION

7.1 Players are not allowed to play in more than one Regu in any Team Event.

7.2 Substitution of a player shall be permitted at any time by showing the Substitution Card to the Referee when the ball is not in play. The Substitution Card shall indicate the jersey number of the outgoing player.

7.3 In each Regu, two Substitutions may be permitted in each set. The player who has been substituted earlier shall be allowed to re-enter the same set. One or two substitutions may be made at the same time for both Team and Regu event competitions.

7.4 For Regu events, each Regu may nominate a maximum of two reserves for any match, in addition to three players.
7.5 For Team events, each Team may nominate a maximum of three reserve players in a match.

7.5.1 Each Team may be permitted to field a maximum of two of the three reserve players in a Regu.

7.5.2 A reserve player fielded in the Regu shall play in that particular Regu only.

7.5.3 The remaining reserve players may be fielded in the next Regu.

7.5.4 Teams shall not be allowed to make any substitution if they have already fielded all their three reserve players.

7.6 If a Regu starts the next set with different players from those who finished the previous set, each change is considered as a substitution.

7.7 In an event of an injury, the injured player may be substituted provided the two substitutions have not been utilised yet. If the two substitutions have already been fielded and the injured player is rendered unfit to continue play, the game will end and the Regu shall be considered as having lost in that set.

7.8 Any Regu having less than three players shall not be allowed to continue the game and shall be considered as having lost in that set.

7.9 If a player is shown a Red Card and is sent off from the game, his Regu is allowed to make a substitution, provided that his Regu has not utilized both substitutions in that set. If his Regu has utilized both substitutions in that set, the game shall end and the Regu with the sent-off player shall be considered as having lost in that set.

8 THE COIN TOSS

8.1 Just before the start of a match, the Court Referee will toss a coin or disc in the presence of the opposing captains. The Captain who calls correctly may elect to either

(i) Serve first or
(ii) Choose which side of the court to start the match from.

The loser makes the remaining choice. Both sides shall abide by the Court Referee’s instructions.
9 POSITION OF PLAYERS DURING SERVICE

9.1 At the start of the play, the players of both Regus must be in their respective courts in a ready position.

9.2 The Tekong shall have his non-kicking foot inside the service circle in ready position before the Referee calls the score. The kicking foot can be placed freely anywhere during the service.

9.3 Both Inside players of the serving side must be in their respective Quarter Circles.

9.4 The opponent or receiving Regu is free to be anywhere inside their court.

10 THE START OF PLAY AND SERVICE

10.1 Each match must be officiated by a Referee (stationed at one end of the net), an Assistant Referee (stationed opposite the Referee), a Court Referee (stationed behind the Referee), one Line Referee to the right of the Referee along the side-line, and one Line Referee to the right of the Assistant Referee along the side-line.

10.2 The Referee is supported off court by an Official Referee.

10.3 The Regu which serves first shall serve three consecutive times, followed by the opposing Regu which shall also serve three consecutive times.

10.4 Service shall alternate thereafter every three points, regardless of which side wins the point.

10.5 The motion of the “Rolling Ball” is counted as one count when the ball touches any part of the body from below the neck and roll to the other approved part of the body and vice versa unintentionally.

10.6 At deuce (when both sides reach 20-20), the service shall alternate at every point made.

10.7 The Regu receiving the first service in the previous set shall serve first in the subsequent set.

10.8 Players shall change sides before the start of each set.

10.9 During the third set, the teams shall change sides when one Regu reaches 11 points.

10.10 Once the Referee calls “POINT, (Name of Team)”, the Tekong of the serving team has fifteen seconds to be ready for the next service with his foot in the Service Circle. If this action is delayed, a warning shall be given. A repetition of this act shall be considered a Fault.
10.11 Wiping of sweat, adjusting of attire and other related actions shall be done within the period of fifteen seconds.

10.12 The throw must be executed as soon as the Referee calls the score. If the throw is executed before the Referee calls the score, it shall be re-thrown and a warning shall be given to the Regu. A repetition of this act shall be considered a Fault.

10.13 During the service, as soon as the Tekong kicks the ball, all the players shall be allowed to move about freely in their respective courts.

10.14 The service is valid if the ball passes over the net, whether it touches the net or not, and is inside the boundary of the two net tapes and boundary lines of the opponent’s court.

10.15 In a knock-out system for Team Event, the Team does not have to play the 3rd Regu if a winner has been decided.

10.16 In a league system for Team Event, it is mandatory for teams to play the 3rd Regu

11 faults

A fault is deemed to have occurred in the event of the followings;

11.1 The Serving Side During Service

11.1.1 The Inside Player making service throws, plays about with the ball (throwing up the ball, bumping, giving to other Inside player, etc.) after the call of the score has been made by the Referee.

11.1.2 Any of the Inside Players lifts his foot, steps on the Quarter Circle or Centre Line or crosses over or touches the net while the ball is being thrown for service.

11.1.3 The Server still not in ready position after the 15 second Rule, for the second time.

11.1.4 During the execution of the service, The Tekong’s non-kicking foot is lifted off the floor prior to the kicking foot’s contact with the ball, or the non-kicking foot steps completely out of the Service Circle.

11.1.5 The Tekong does not kick the ball on the service throw.

11.1.6 The ball touches his own player before crossing the net.

11.1.7 The ball goes over the net but lands outside the court.

11.1.8 The ball fails to cross the net.
11.1.9 A player uses his hand or hands, or any other part of his arms to support the execution of a kick even if the hand or arm does not directly touch the ball, but it touches other objects or surfaces instead.

11.1.10 The Thrower of the serving Regu throws the ball before the Referee calls the score for the second or subsequent time during the match.

11.2 Serving And Receiving Side During Service

11.2.1 Deliberately creating distractions by shouting, making noises or gesturing at the opponent after the Referee calls the score.

11.3 For Both Sides During The Game

11.3.1 Touching the ball on the opponent side.

11.3.2 Any part of player’s body crossing over into opponent’s court whether above or under the net except during the “follow-through”.

11.3.3 Playing the ball more than 3 times in succession.

11.3.4 The ball touches the player’s arm.

11.3.5 Stopping or holding the ball under the arm, between the legs or body.

11.3.6 Any part of the body or player’s outfits e.g. shoes, jersey, head band etc., that touches the net or the post or the Referee’s chairs or falls into the opponent’s side.

11.3.7 The ball touches the roof, wall or any object except the net.

11.3.8 Any player using the aid of any external object as a form of support to facilitate the execution of a kick.

12 SCORING SYSTEM

12.1 When either the serving or receiving Regu commits a fault, a point is awarded to the opponent.

12.2 Each set is won by the Regu when it reaches the score of twenty-one (21) points with a minimum lead of two points.

12.3 In the event of a score of 20-20, the set shall be won by the side which gets a lead of two (2) points, or when a side reaches twenty-five (25) points, whichever occurs first. In such a situation, the Referee shall announce “Setting up to twenty-five (25) points”.

12.4 Each match shall be determined on the basis of a best of three sets format, with two minute breaks in between sets. Sets shall be referred to as the first, second and third. The Regu which wins two sets first, shall be declared the winner of the match.

13 TIME – OUT

13.1 Each Regu shall be entitled to one time-out for a period of not exceeding one minute in each set.

13.2 Only the Team Manager or the Coach may call for time-out only when the ball is not in play.

13.3 Only two persons of different outfits from the playing Regu shall be allowed at the baseline during time-out and break.

14 TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF PLAY

14.1 The Referee may suspend play temporarily for not exceeding five minutes for each Regu in the event that a player is injured and required immediate medical attention.

14.2 An injured player shall be allowed up to five minutes of injury time. If after five minutes, he is unable to continue play, a substitution shall be made. However, if the injured player’s Regu has already made two substitutions earlier, the set shall be awarded to the opponent. An injury time shall not exceed 5 minutes in total per Regu.

14.3 In the event of obstructions, disturbances or disruptions, only the Official Referee may suspend the match after consulting the Tournament Committee.

14.4 Following a match suspension, all players shall not be allowed to leave the court except with the expressed permission of the Official Referee.

14.5 A Let is a call made by the Referee that requires the point or service to be replayed. This occurs when;

14.5.1 Referee is unable to decide which side to be awarded the point, and declares a “REPLAY”.

14.5.2 Referee needs to stop play temporary due to some interference during play.
15 DISCIPLINE

15.1 All players and team officials shall abide by the Law of the Game.
15.2 Only the Captain of the Regu is allowed to approach the Referee during the game to request an explanation concerning the latter decision in the match.
15.3 Any Team Official or Player who disputes the Referee’s decision during the match or acts in any manner that jeopardizes the smooth running of the match, shall be regarded as having committed a serious breach of discipline, and disciplinary action shall be taken against him.

16 PENALTY
